Jane's Terrorism and Insurgency Centre

1 ...gives you details
of every incident

Over 100,000 different types of event on file and a worldwide team of experts analysing over 100 new events every day – Jane's Terrorism and Insurgency Centre is simply the most comprehensive open-source terrorism and insurgency intelligence resource currently available.

Jane's Terrorism and Insurgency Centre

2 ...provides early warning of emerging threats

Our July 2010 webinar highlighted the threat posed by Shabab in Somalia and addressed the threat of its campaign moving beyond Somalia's borders. Less than two weeks later Shabab launched its first major international attack – twin suicide bombs in the Ugandan capital Kampala.

Jane's Terrorism and Insurgency Centre

3 ...brings you unrivalled analysis

Our team of in-house analysts, contributors in the field and contacts in international security and intelligence, combined with our ability to exploit geospatial terrorism data, satellite imagery intelligence and insurgent video analysis, mean that we are able to bring you articles that others can't match.

Jane's Terrorism and Insurgency Centre

4 ...constantly evolves

We make hundreds of individual updates to our profiles over the course of each year, ensuring that we constantly reflect the real-world situation and provide you with an accurate, up-to-date assessment of the status and threat posed by active terrorist and insurgent groups. Profiles of particularly significant or active groups – e.g. FARC – are typically updated on a weekly basis.

Jane's Terrorism and Insurgency Centre

5 ...lets you visualise terrorist trends

Our Events Map allows you to plot every terrorist or insurgent attack, successful or attempted, and view it at country, region or international level, enabling you to identify trends in tactics, operation and intensity.

Jane's Terrorism and Insurgency Centre

6 ...provides global coverage

JRTN in Iraq, Shabab in Somalia, IMU in Afghanistan/Pakistan, Al-Qaeda in the Arabian Peninsula, MEND in Nigeria, FARC in Colombia...Jane's Terrorism and Insurgency Centre provides you with detailed analysis and threat assessments for these and over 270 other active and dormant terrorist and insurgent groups across the globe.
